

Maureen Coffey

Overview

Maureen joined ADI Consulting as an Analyst in 2017 and immediately began working on client projects where the objective was to identify, measure, and gain insight into the causes and sources of compliance risk. This econometric research draws on Maureen's experience with econometrics, statistics, and calculus, as well as the relevant software programs. In this work, Maureen works with ADI's Senior Economist, Paul Strasberg.

Professional Experience

Before joining ADI, Maureen gained professional experience during her college years:

Business Manager and Contributing Writer

The Oberlin Review

- Planned and maintained the annual budget, which exceeded $40,000;
- Managed weekly publication process, including working with suppliers and printers;
- Interacted with Payroll, the Controller's Office, and Purchasing Department to ensure payment of all staff, suppliers, and printers for more than 45 editions of The Oberlin Review; and
- Wrote Opinions – Editorials

Internships with three organizations:

- Alumni Relations, External Relations Department, International Baccalaureate – Bethesda, MD
- Farrell & Pak, PLLC – Austin, TX
- Wells Fargo; Commercial Bank – McLean VA