Professional Experience

ADI Consulting, Fairfax, VA, June 2019 - Present

Analyst

Chuck works with ADI's Senior Economist, Paul Strasberg. He assists in the development and implementation of econometric analyses designed to identify, measure, and gain insight into the causes and sources of Fair Lending risk.

Before joining ADI, Chuck gained professional experience during his college years as an intern with Impact Consulting and Management performing market research and data analysis regarding the formation of its subsidiary Way2Work. He also interned at a marketing firm and was able to help businesses find products that increased their efficiency. Both companies are located in his hometown of Louisville, KY.

Education

Chuck graduated from Oberlin College with a major in Economics and minor in Law & Society. While attending Oberlin, he was a tutor for Principles of Accounting course, a member of the Finance and Investment Club, and played varsity Football all four years.
